EIGHTY-FIVE KILLED OR INJURED IN B. & O. WRECK

VICTIMS CREMATED BY FLAMES THAT DESTROY SIX COACHES

Disaster Caused By Blunder of Railroad Employee--Blame Not Fixed

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—More than one half the passengers on an immigrant train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad were killed or injured in a collision today between a passenger train and a freight near Woodville, Ind. One hundred and sixty-five passengers were on the train and of these forty-seven were killed outright or were burned to death in the fire that broke out in the wreckage, immediately after the collission. The names of all the dead will probably never be known, as forty-five of the bodies were consumed in the flames, or were so badly burned that identification is impossible.

Thirty-eight people were injured, and several of these will die. Eighty others escaped unhurt, but lost nearly all their baggage and clothing.

The disaster was caused by a blunder of some employe of the railroad company, but just where the blame lies has not as yet been determined. The passenger train, which was loaded with Russian Jews, Servians and Poles, all of them recent arrivals in this country and bound for Chicago or places in the northwest, was the second section of a through train from Baltimore. The engineer of the freight train, number 98, on instructions received at McCool, Ind., waited at a siding at Babcock, Ind., to allow the immigration train to pass. One report is that the engineer of the freight train had not been informed that the passenger train was running in two sections, the other is that the first section of the passenger train carried no lights or signals of any kind indicating that a second section was close behind. As soon as the first section of the immigrant train had passed the switch at Babcock, the freight train, in charge of Engineer Burke and Conductor Mostic, started eastward. A light snow was falling which increased the darkness of the early morning and as the freight was rounding a sharp curve, just west of Woodville, the

Embraces Girl, Gets Needle in Heart and Dies

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 12.—Tonight, after a day spent in investigating the death of Thomas Dougherty, of Dunmore, who was killed by being pierced through the heart, by a long needle, the local police and county detective Phillipps decided to withdraw the warrant that had been issued for the arrest of Katie Burke, the girl who was suspected of having caused Dougherty's death.

The authorities are of the opinion that the girl is innocent of murderous intent. She says that she had been mending her brother's clothing with a long needle used hereabouts in mending miners' heavy outer clothing, and that on going down town in the evening, she stuck the pin in the bosom of her dress. Dougherty who had been her sweetheart, hailed her and asked her to take a walk with him. He attempted to embrace her and the point of the needle that was in her dress, caught in his vest, while the "eye," or blunt end rested against her corset. In the embrace, the needle was forced into his body, through the fifth rib and into the cavity between the pericardium and the heart. Hemorrhages resulted that caused death.

AMERICAN FEDERATION SPENDS LITTLE ON STRIKES

Annual Report of Secretary Morrison to the Convention Shows That Less Than $1000 is Cost of Boycott in Year—Gomper's Address is Heard

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 12.—The feature of the opening session here today of the twenty-sixth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, was the exhaustive annual report of President Samuel Gompers in which he detailed the progress of the labor movement throughout the country, laying special stress on the advent of unionism in the political arena and recommending that this course be strictly adhered to. A strong plea was made for the employment of American labor on the Panama Canal.

At the conclusion of President Gomper's address, the annual report of Secretary Frank Morrison was read, which showed the federation to be not only in splendid financial condition but also stronger in membership than ever before.

There is at the present time, $113,540.60 in the treasury of the federation. During the year there were 887 strikes in which there were 91,530 men involved. Of that number 68,812 were benefited and 11,183 not benefited. The total cost of strikes during the year was $3,982.66.

The convention adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The sessions will continue for two weeks.

"Financially as well as otherwise, the American Federation of Labor has had a prosperous year," says Secretary Frank Morrison in his report for the year ending September 30. The year was closed with $113,540 in the treasury.

The total receipts from all sources are $217,815.18, divided as follows:

"Per capita tax, $108,046; supplies $12,887; American Federationists $25,912; International Typographical Union, assessments, $52,619; textile assessments, $2056; defense fund $15,556; premium on bonds, $736. The expenses are $218,540, as follows:

"From general fund, $24,818; American Federationist, $26,868; defense fund, $18,643; premium on bonds, $591; International Typographical Union, assessment, $52,619."

Hearst Banqueted By Associates In Recent Campaign

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A complimentary dinner was given to William R. Hearst tonight at Delmonico's by Louis Stuyvesant Chandler, W. S. Jackson, John S. Whalen, Julius Hauson and F. W. Skene, his associates on the Democratic and Independence League state tickets.

Besides Mr. Hearst, there were twenty-six other guests, all of whom were either associated with him during his recent campaign for Governor or were successful judicial candidates on the Independence League or other tickets. Mr. Chandler presided, with Mr. Hearst at his right and Recorder Goff, who was elected to a place on the Supreme Court bench, at his left. The banquet was private. Others at the banquet were Nathan Strauss, William Astor Chandler, Justices-elect T. C. T. Crain, Charles W. Dayton, Samuel Seabury, Peter A. Hendricks, Charles L. Guy, Leonard A. Giegerich and Otto Rosalski; Clarence J. Shearn, Chairman William J. Conners of the Democratic State Committee and Max Ihmsen.

Mr. Hearst said he was proud of the cause that he and his associates had fought for, and of his partial success. That cause, he declared, was right, and would be recognized as such, "as soon as the din and dust and confusion of the battle shall subside."

He knew that when the ideas he advocated during the campaign were thoroughly understood, they would not be considered dangerous or anarchistic, but would be recognized as just and patriotic. He concluded his speech with thanks to the various political elements, who supported his candidacy, including "The Independent Republicans," and the "Independent Labor votes."

Nathan Strauss in a speech, declared that if his brother, Oscar Strauss, had not been selected to be secretary of Commerce and Labor, in President Roosevelt's cabinet, he would have stumped the state, "and told the people what a man Mr. Hearst is."

ERIE LINE FIREMEN TO STRIKE FOR MORE PAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The scale of wages and the length of the work day, were the issues at various meetings today of grievance committees representing the engineers and firemen of several of the railroads centering at New York.

The poll of the locomotive firemen of the Erie railroad, for the purpose of determining whether or not to resort to a strike in an endeavor to enforce their demands, has resulted in an almost unanimous vote in favor of a strike so far as returns have been received.

The adjustment committee of the engineers is formulating a set of demands to be made upon the Erie, irrespective of the demands of the firemen. The engineers have a contract with the Erie, which does not expire for several months, but the new demands are being formulated as a basis for a new contract.

POSSE BATTLES WITH ROBBERS OF OVERLAND LIMITED

Armed Bandits Board Train and Steal Valuables From the Passengers

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES FAIL TO CAPTURE MEN

Train No. 1, the Overland limited, westbound, was held up by armed bandits at Carlin late Saturday night, and about $1000 and various articles of jewelry taken from the passengers. Yardmaster Woodward, it is said, attempted single handed to capture the robber and a fusilla de of bullets was exchanged before the hold-up men escaped. It is asserted by railroad men at Sparks that a posse of deputy sheriffs and Southern Pacific detectives are hot on the trail of the bandit, and they are now spread out over the broad desert searching for the nervy bandit.

As the train slowed down at Carlin the bandits stepped out from behind the depot and ordered Conductor Corn to hold up his hands. The latter had a satchel containing money belonging to the railroad in his hand and this the robbers took. The conductor was told to move up the truck and then the passengers in the car were fleeced. Those in their berths were told to "shell out," and they would not be harmed. Down the aisle of the car the robbers walked and awakened each passenger in turn taking the coin and slipping it into a leather sack.

In the second Pullman the robbers was not given the valuables readily and he fired a shoot into the floor in order to frighten the sleepers. This brought a flood of wealth out in the aisle. The robbers collected most of this, and then went through the last car, repeating the performance.

The boldness of the robbery caused the passengers to give up their property before they realized the audacity of the crime.

Some of them secured their revolvers and tried to follow the bandits when they jumped off the rear end of the observation car, but the parting shots, sent to scare them the more, prevented pursuit.

The yardmaster, hearing the shots, hurried to the rear of the car in time to catch a glimpse of the robbers. Woodward ordered him to halt and the reply came in the shape of three shots from the outlaws' guns. Woodward ran after the fleeing form, but in the darkness his random shots missed.

The train was held at Carlin for a time and the railroad officials formed a posse to capture the man. It is believed that he escaped from Carlin on horseback. The pursuit will be short it is expected, for the means of subsistence are few and the bandit will have to enter some town or farm house to get food.

A later report from Carlin states that Brakeman F. Bertran boarded the train in time to collide with one of the robbers, a deaf and dumb man. His capture leads to the discovery by the brakeman of the theft. The captured bandit was turned over to the sheriff, but during the excitement he escaped. He is believed to have joined the gang, and made his escape with the posse.

Impudent Morocco Will See Claws of the British Lion

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 12.—The British Atlantic fleet is to leave here for Tangier. In conjunction with a French fleet of warships it will engage in a demonstration in Moorish waters.

The British warships will be provisioned tonight on very short notice.

During the last few months, conditions in the interior of Morocco have constantly grown worse. Foreigners have been assaulted and outraged, towns have been raided, Jews have been persecuted, foreign vessels on the coast have been fired upon while the diplomatic representatives of the powers concerned have protested, to the Sultan, their demands have been received with slight attention.

The agitation against foreigners is reported to be on the increase, and Spain has found it necessary to send a war ship to the Moroccan coast, to remove Spanish subjects. Insurgent tribesmen have been active in creating disorder among themselves and the forces of the Sultan and those under Bu-Hanara, the pretender, to the throne, have come in contact in recent months, with victory first on one side and then on the other.

The diplomats at Tangier have protested more than once to the Moroccan authorities against the lack of protection for foreigners, but no improvement has been forthcoming. In fact, the local authorities have been increasingly aggressive and even insolent in their treatment of the local authorities of France and Spain. France already has one or two cruisers in Moroccan waters.

The American mission to Fez, under the American Minister to Morocco, Mr. Gummere, is at the capitol for the purpose, among other things, of obtaining satisfactory assurances for the safety of Americans in Morocco, as well as indemnity for outrages committed in Morocco upon persons under American protection.

The International conference, held at Algeciras this spring, agreed upon certain reforms for Morocco and according to the provisions of the convention, which was accepted and signed by the Sultan on June 18th, the reforms are to go into effect the end of this year.

PARDEE UNCONVINCED OF SIEMAN'S GUILT

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 12.—Governor Pardee declines to issue a pardon in the case of Dowdall, under sentence of fifty years for robbing Dr. T. B. W. Leland, of San Francisco, until he shall have satisfied himself that the confessions of Dabner and Siemsen, the gas pipe murderers, are genuine. He has asked for a transcript of the testimony taken at Dowdall's trial.

FINISHES INVESTIGATION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor, Victor H. Metcalf, who was sent to San Francisco by President Roosevelt to investigate the exclusion of Japanese children from the schools attended by whites, has concluded his work and will depart for Washington to make his report.

PHELAN IS PRESIDENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Mrs. John F. Merrill declined the Presidency of the California branch of the National Red Cross Society at its annual meeting today and James D. Phelan was elected President of the organization. Judge W. W. Morrow, the retiring President, was prevented from being present by ill-health.

$200,000 BOND ISSUE FOR MUNICIPAL IMPROVEMENTS

Concrete Highway as Substitute for Panama Ditch

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 12.—A plan for a concrete maritime highway across the Isthmus of Panama to be used as a substitute for the ditch as at present projected, has been submitted to President Roosevelt, by Colonel Alexander Hogeland, known throughout the United States as the "Father of the Curfew." The plan which has been the subject of correspondence between the President and the Engineering Department and Colonel Hogeland, is now in the hands of the Canal Commission. It contemplates the building of a concrete highway at the bottom thirty feet above the sea level and which will resemble a viaduct in passing the low portions of the Isthmus. The advantages claimed for it are that it will allow the rivers to be passed under it, thereby obviating the dangers resulting from freshets; doing away with the necessity for impounding a vast quantity of water from the Chagres and other rivers in the artificial lake by the Gatun dam and finally avoiding the necessity for an immense annual expense for dredging and keeping the canal clear and especially where it passes through the artificial lakes.

BURSTING OF A BOILER SCATTERS FEARFUL DEATH

Boiling Water Belches From Rent Made By Pent Up Steam and Scalds Eight Workmen to Death—Detonation is Heard for Two Miles.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.—Six men were killed and five seriously injured today, when a boiler in the power house of the Lake Shore and Michigan railroad, in Collinwood, a suburb of Cleveland, blew up. The men were working close to the boiler, building the foundation for a dynamo, when the explosion occurred. They were all in the mouth of a subway, facing the end which blew out of the boiler, and were scalded to death by the immense volume of steam which shot out.

THE DEAD:

Max Crawford, electrician.
Albert Bloom, carpenter.
A. P. Latta, pipe fitter.
Paul O. Lancioni, laborer.
Giovanni Paconi, laborer.
Julius Waeder, pipe fitter.

FATALLY SCALDED:

Fred K. Kergan, mill wright foreman.
W. A. Davis, electrician.

Engineers at the power house say the explosion was due to the formation of a "mud ring" in the filtering apparatus, which clarifies the water before its passage into the boiler. The shock of the explosion was felt for two miles.

CRUISER'S FINAL TEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—After three failures, the new cruiser California, recently completed at the Union Iron Works, today successfully underwent the four hours endurance run, the last and final test before her acceptance by the government.

MONEY NEEDED TO BUILD STREETS AND EXTEND SEWERS

Council May Put Matter Before Peoyle to Vote On at Spring Election

FOR the purpose of improving the streets and constructing sewers in the residential sections of Reno, it is announced that a bond issue, probably amounting to $200,000, will be voted on at the coming municipal election. City finances are not in condition even to bear the expense of the sewer for the south side, which is being planned at a cost of about $50,000, according to the estimates of City Engineer Stewart and examined at the meeting of the council last night. So the board has decided that a bond issue is the only way to solve the situation.

From all parts of the city come the petitions of the people asking that the sewers and the streets be improved. The affair was made more poignant before the council last night when L. B. Self presented a plea for sewers in the St. George addition. He said that the absence of this sanitary measure is a detriment to the locality, that buildings are not erected there because of it oftimes. On the southside the residents make the same argument, and they state that their needs are equally imperative.

Stewart's specifications for the sewers for the southside include two schemes. The first will cost $51,050. It calls for a sewer starting at the south boundary of Reno, running northeast to Stewart street and then to the Truckee river opposite the old reduction works. The average depth will be twenty-one feet and eighteen and twelve inch pipe is suggested. By this plan 10,000 people would be accommodated. The second plan could be completed at a cost of $47,640. It would include all the territory south of Mill street and east of Arlington avenue. The average depth would be twenty feet and 15,000 people would be accommodated.

Affixed to this report was the statement that the board of health has been unable to enforce the sanitary regulations because of the absence of sewers, and a suggestion that one of the plans be accepted and the work

EDITORIAL COMMENT

"A Victory for the People"

THE JOURNAL'S readers have heard much in the past year about the passage of the bill regulating railroad rates, the pure food law, and the measure compelling the packers to desist from poisoning us with "embalmed beef." We have been congratulating ourselves upon the great victories won for the people, and felicitating ourselves that the voice of the nation is stronger at Washington than is the voice of the corporations. Even President Roosevelt has fostered the delusion by calling for the re-election of a Republican congress to support him in his work of reform.

It is generally conceded that the greatest work of his administration has been the passage of the railway rate bill. Here is the truth about that measure as given by David Graham Phillips in the last issue of the Cosmopolitan Magazine:

"There was the railway rate legislation. Laws long on the statute books, though just recently begun to be enforced, amply cover discriminations and rebates. The real demand of the people as to railways the demand the "merger" Senate and House tried to deceive and quiet with a trick railway-rate law, centers about this fact:

THE PEOPLE ARE ROBBED BY MEANS OF THE RAILWAYS THROUGH HAVING TO PAY FREIGHT AND PASSENGER TOLLS BASED ON EXTORTIONATE DIVIDENDS TO SUBSIDIARY CORPORATIONS ORGANIZED FOR "MILKING" PURPOSES, AND ON AN OVER-CAPITALIZATION OF THE RAILROADS THEMSELVES AMOUNTING TO ABOUT SIXTEEN BILLION DOLLARS—ACTUAL VALUE, FOUR BILLIONS; STOCKS AND BONDS, TWENTY BILLIONS.

This means directly and indirectly a heavy tax on every American family: a cut into your profits, your salary, your wages, your savings; poorer clothes for your family, fewer comforts and luxuries, greater hardships in hard times. To measure that tax, not merely the net earnings of the railroads about three-quarters of a billion a year, but the GROSS earnings, about two billion dollars, must be investigated. Also, like all indirect taxes, it wastes fully as much as it takes. How did the "merger" Senate meet, or rather dodge, that vital question? From February until June it discussed everything and anything, cheifly the Constitution, hours on hours, days on days. It spent LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES, and that incidentally—a colloquy between Senators Beveridge and La Follette—in debate upon the real issue. It discussed for weeks "broad" and "narrow" court reviews—a matter of concern to shipper only. What was the object of those vast clouds of dust, raised by Aldrich's and Cannon's orators, assisted by the Bailey and Williams "bunch?" To distract the attention of the President and the country from the real issue.

That real issue lies buried under the typical trick-law phrase of the new statute, which says that rates must be "JUST AND REASONABLE." The "merged" Senate, for the obvious reason of treachery to the people, refused to define what "just and reasonable" means or to permit the Interstate Commerce Commission to gather the information upon which the justice and reasonableness of rates could be determined by it and by the courts. On May 14th, Senator La Follette introduced an amendment to repair this vital error and to make the bill a real measure instead of a pretentious fraud. His amendment was that

> The Commission shall investigate and ascertain the fair value of the property of every railroad engaged in interstate commerce * * All final valuations (after the railways have been heard before the Commission and before the courts) shall be prima facie evidence of the fair value of the railroad property (in fixing rates).

The "merger" did not dare debate this proposal. Senator Hale, for the "merger," moved to kill it. La Follette compelled a call of the ayes and noes.

(Here Mr. Phillips gives the names of those who voted for Hale's amendment. There were forty-nine Republicans and one Democrat—McEnery, of Louisiana. In addition to the forty-nine Republicans, present and voting, there were ten absent, "paired" for the amendment, making in all fifty-nine Republicans and one Democrat favoring this iniquitous amendment.)

Does the law give the Commission any power at all in fixing rates? Charles A. Prouty, Vermont, Republican and interstate commerce commissioner, giving an analysis of this law, lauded as a "glorious victory for the people," said that the original bill as passed by the House (the President's bill), gave the Commission the power to fix rates, but the Senate intervened. He added:

> Whether the bill as finally agreed upon confers this power can only be positively affirmed after the courts have passed upon this question. * * Upon the decision of this question depends in a large degree the effectiveness of the measure.

"No sudden or startling results of any kind will follow from this law," says he. And he says well; it is as "safe and sane," as thoroughly "mergered," as the Cullom act of 1887. The grant of power to fix rates is doubtful; and no basis is provided for fixing "just and reasonable rates." Such is the "victory for the people," the "vindication of the statesmanship and patriotism of the Senate." No wonder honest Senator Tillman could not be wheedled into signing the final conference report on this bill. No wonder President Baer of the Reading openly laughs at the law. What a travesty, to call such a cheat law!

FEW candidates give people such an excuse for voting against them as did Hearst when he visited the phonograph upon the ears of unoffending New Yorkers.

SPEAKER CANNON is supposed to be one of the heavy guns of the Republican party. But he, no more than its most stupid recruit, can explain away the outrageous injustices of the Dingley tariff. The following is a correct report of an interruption to his speech at Rumford Falls, Maine: Citizen—"Mr. Cannon, how is it that the trusts sell their goods cheaper in Europe than they do here?" Mr. Cannon—"What is your name?" Citizen—"Never mind my name. That doesn't matter. Answer my question." Mr. Cannon—"Do you work? Do you earn an honest living?" Citizen—"Yes, I work for the paper company up here thirteen hours a day for 90 cents." Mr. Cannon—"Come out to Illinois and you can find a better job."

JUDGING from the tone of his newspapers, William Randolph Hearst is inclined to believe that 'tis better to have run and lost than never to have run at all.

THREE MEN KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF BOILER

Locomotive Pulling Sunset Limited Train Blown to Atoms While Passing Station, Killing Engineer, Fireman and Sup. of Block System

SAN JOSE, Cal., Nov. 12.—Three men were killed and several persons slightly injured by the explosion of the engine of the southbound Sunset limited train on the Southern Pacific road at Sargent's station last night.

THE DEAD:

Joseph Goodfellow, superintendent of the Southern Pacific block system.

Samuel A. Gillespie, engineer of train.

James Bladon, fireman.

The bodies of Goodfellow and Gillespie were picked up near the wreck, badly disfigured, having been almost blown into fragments. James Bladon, the fireman, was hurled sixty feet from the station and although breathing faintly when found, he expired a few hours later. None of the passengers were dangerously hurt.

When the boiler exploded, the cab was hurled into the station, which was being passed at the time, destroying that structure and the huge boiler, weighing 18 tons, shot forward through the air, striking the track ahead more thann 300 feet from the spot where the explosion occurred.

The empty trucks continued at their fifty miles an hour gait until the boiler was struck. This ponderous mass of steel served as a bumper for the swiftly onrushing train of Pullmen sleepers and tourist cars, and it was pushed forward through the gravel and ties for twenty feet more before the train came to a stop. The tender, mail car, chair car and two tourist sleepers were derailed, and some of the passengers were slightly shaken up, but the last six cars remained on the track, without damage to them or injury to their occupants.

A panic followed the sudden stopping of the train, and it was with difficulty that women passengers were restrained from jumping headlong into the ditch. The track was cleared this morning.

MONEY NEEDED TO BUILD STREETS AND SEWERS

rushed.

Self & Sellman, builders of the city hall, will be granted ninety days additional time to complete the construction of the structure, providing their bondsmen agree. Self asked for the extension of time last night, giving as the reason for the request that material has been delayed through unavoidable causes. The city hall was to have been completed November 15.

The bond of the Pauley Jail company, which was the successful bidder for the erection of the cells in the city hall, was accepted. The work will begin immediately on the erection of the cells.

The residents of northeast Reno presented a petition asking that something be done about the garbage crematory which is located near their places. It was stated in the petition that the smoke and gases from the crematory have become a nuisance.

H. Heidtman appeared before the council and requested that the Campbell cabin, which is located on Chestnut street, be removed from its present location. Heidtman claimed that the cabin obstructed the street for years. The city attorney was instructed to inquire into the matter.

J. M. Gray reported to the council that the irrigating ditch flume on Truckee street has become a nuisance. The public works department will remedy the defective flume.

In the petition for sewers in St. George addition L. B. Self stated that 900 feet of pipe would connect the residences there with the lines in the center of town.

When the various bills were being allowed it was stated that the Reno Power, Light & Water company has been charging the city for seventy-two arcs, while according to the assertion of Electrician Caffery only sixty-nine lights are in use. Caffery averred that he had compared the list and that his enumeration is correct. The council will review the bills for the months from April to the present in order to determine how long the seventy-two arcs have been charged to the city. It is believed that a clerical error is responsible for the discussion.

Captain Alter of the police department asked that the council rescind its order that he remain on duty until six o'clock in the morning. The council will decide the matter at the meeting tonight.

MAJOR GENERAL SHAFTER EXPIRES AT BAKERSFIELD

Gallant Veteran of Cuban Campaign Succumbs to Attack of Acute Pneumonia Contracted While Returning From Polls on Election Day—Body Will Be Interred at Presidio

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 12.—Major General William Rufus Shafter, U. S. A., retired, died at 12:15 p. m. today at the ranch of Captain W. H. McKittrick, his son-in-law, 20 miles south of this city after an illness of seven days, despite the best medical attention in California.

While returning from the polls last Tuesday he contracted a severe chill which augmented a slight indisposition and necessitated confinement to his bed. Dr. T. W. Mitchell, the local family physician, was at once summoned.

The patient failed to improve and Dr. A. Schafer was called for consultation. Intestinal obstruction was discovered but it was determined that this was a secondary affliction brought on by an acute attack of pneumonia. Wednesday and Thursday, no improvement was noticed and Friday afternoon Dr. M. H. Herzstein, of San Francisco, was communicated with. Unable to depart at once, Dr. T. W. Thorne was dispatched in Dr. Herzstein's place. Dr. Thorne arrived early Saturday morning and together with the local physicians diligently watched the patient all that day. In the afternoon a slight rally was detected and relatives and physicians were extremely hopeful but the change was short-lived. At 10 o'clock a sinking spell seized the veteran. Dr. Herzstein arrived shortly after midnight Sunday morning and after being hurriedly driven to the general's bedside a consultation was held with the other physicians in attendance. It is stated that Dr. Herzstein deemed an operation the only means of relief from the intestinal obstruction but the condition of the patient would forecast nothing but fatal results in such an attempt. Dr. Herzstein, accompanied by Dr. Thorne returned to San Francisco, all hope of saving the gallant hero having been abandoned. The patient was left in charge of Dr. Mitchell and the battle against desperate odds continued. Through it all the veteran bore up bravely. Always critical condition, the patient remained conscious until 9 o'clock this morning. Pure oxygen, sent from San Francisco, performed a great work in keeping life up but after midnight and early this morning a constant weakening was discerned. Dr. Mitchell and the trained nurse labored unceasingly but the general lapsed into unconsciousness at 9 o'clock and remained in that condition until death.

Captain and Mrs. W. H. McKittrick, the general's son-in-law and daughter, Miss Edmonds, a niece and Jas. N. Shafter, a brother, were at the bedside where the end came.

The body of Major-General Shafter will leave this city on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock on the Santa Fe-California limited train and upon arrival at Point Richmond, the next morning, will be placed aboard a government tug and escorted by military officers to the Presidio at San Francisco. Interment will be had in the post cemetery immediately after the arrival, with full military honors. The remains will rest at the McKittrick ranch until Wednesday evening.

EIGHTY-FIVE KILLED OR INJURED IN WRECK

second section of the immigrant train came in sight, a short distance ahead, tearing toward Chicago at the rate of forty miles an hour. The two trains came together with unslackened speed and in the crash, six passenger coaches and several freight cars were knocked into kindling wood and together with the locomotives went rolling down the ten foot embankment. Fire broke out almost immediately in the wreckage, and although a number of the injured were saved by the desperate efforts of the train crew, and surviving passengers, the greater part of those who were pinned down in the debris were burned to death. The flames spread through the wreckage so rapidly that it was impossible to save a number of people who were but slightly hurt but who were held fast by the timbers. These were burned in plain sight of the throng which stood around the scene of the disaster, utterly unable to lend assistance. The fire continued until all of the shattered cars were entirely consumed, and of the forty-seven people whose deaths followed the collission, forty-five were burned to ashes. Relief trains were at once sent out from South Chicago and from Valparaiso, Ind., with every available provision and every possible aid was given to the injured. A large number of the relatives of the passengers on the ill-fated train were in Chicago awaiting their arrival, and when the report of the catastrophe was received, the scenes around the Baltimore and Ohio station were harrowing. Men were there who had come to this country to escape the massacres in Russia, and who after months of hard work had saved enough to pay the passage of members of their families, and their grief when they became aware that possibly all their sacrifices and effort had resulted only in the death of those whom they had sought to bring to them, was pitiful. Crowds of Russians and Poles waited around the depot all day, waiting for news from Woodville, and when late in the afternoon, a train came in bearing the thirty-eight injured passengers, it was with the greatest difficulty that the police were able to open a passageway for the wounded. Several of the foreigners became so excited that they attempted to attack station officials whose uniforms led them to believe they were employed by the Baltimore and Ohio road.

Among the wounded who were taken to Chicago was Mrs. Anna Chyza, who had come from Warsaw to meet her husband who had been working here for six months. Mrs. Chyza is blind and her husband recognized her as she was being carried through the crowd by two policemen. Before the officers could stop him, he fell across the stretcher, carrying it to the ground, and kissed his wife repeatedly. She recognized his voice and they clung to each other so desperately that it required the efforts of both policemen to force them apart. Chyza struggled so fiercely that it was necessary to place him under arrest. He was released after being taken out of the station. Others whose relatives were among the injured, begged to be allowed to take them to their homes, but the police were obdurate and all the injured were taken to the hospital, where it is believed they will receive better care than their friends might be able to give them.

At the hospital tonight it was said that it would for some time, be impossible to predict the result in the cases of several of the injured.

$60,000 CONTRACT FOR ADDITION TO GOLDEN

Northwestern Construction Company Authorized to Build Fourth Story and Annex to Hotel—Will Give 102 Rooms and 18 Baths

Architects Holsworth, Curtis & Company yesterday let the contract for the construction of the annex and fourth story to the Hotel Golden to the Northwestern Construction company, the work to cost $60,000.

Fran kGolden, owner of the hotel, wired the architects, authorizing them to let the contract. Eugene Schuler, president of the Northwestern Construction company, has accepted the work and he will begin the construction immediately.

The excavations for the annex in the rear of the hotel are being finished. The annex will be built four stories in height. The additions to the hotel will make 102 extra rooms, and 48 baths will be installed.

Another contract was let yesterday in connection with the Hotel Golden which means much for the improvement in the appearance of that popular hostlery, and further evidences the faith that the owner, Frank Golden, and the proprietor, Al North, have in the future of this city.

The contract provides for the ripping out of the partition separating the present lobby from the Golden grills on the other side of the stairway. This will make a large metropolitan lobby by thus throwing the two rooms into one. The grill will then be moved next door where the electrical company now has its quarters and it is expected will interfere with the newly opened club being operated by John Nolan and Tony Abbott.

The work of altering the lobby room of the hotel and the moving of the restaurant will be completed, it is expected, within the next sixty days.

Volunteer Meeting.

Rev. C. L. Mears will speak at the Volunteers hall, 232 Sierra St., at 8 p. m. Tuesday evening. All are welcome. Glad to have Christians come and help.

SPITE OF TROUBLE GREAT BAND COMES

Organization of Hawaiian Musicians Under Skilled Leadership Will be at McKissick's Opera House Next Thursday and Sunday Evenings

It appears that the temporary embarassment of the Hawaiian band in Ogden was easily tided over, and the splendid organization will be able to fill its engagement in Reno as anticipated by lovers of music in this city.

The operations of the interstate commerce law, which was framed to catch the big corporations, would seem to harrass only the smaller companies and among them amusement enterprises. Fortunately however, the stay in Ogden was but a temporary one, and the band will appear in Reno as per schedule.

Novelty in amusement circles is what the public is constantly asking for and the aim of great theatrical managers to provide. The most remarkable novelty ever given to the public of this country for many years is the appearance of the famous Royal Hawaiian band from Honolulu, which is now making its first tour of America, by permission and under the auspices of the government of the Hawaiian Islnads. This superb organization is unlike any other military band in the whole world. It is not only a complete military band-comparing with any of the famous bands, but it is also a stringed orchestra, a choir of melodious voices, a glee club, a guitar club, a mandolin and banjo club, and also solo singers of endless variety.

The government of Hawaii has always been opposed to having the band leave the islands, except for a brief visit, but it made so remarkable a success when at the Portland, Oregon, exposition last year that the Hawaiian government consented to the band making the present tour. The band numbers sixty talented musicians and singers, and is under the direction of Captain H. Berger, who founded it in 1871. The programmes to be given here will be most of the varied repertoire of the organization, during its engagement at the opera house Thursday and Sunday evenings.

RENO REAL ESTATE CONTINUES ACTIVE

Frank Quinn Gets Deed for Lots On Riverside Ave. M. Habel Gets Instrument Covering Property on Peavine Street.

Another busy day at County Recorder Stoddard's office yesterday marked the continuance of the real estate activity which has become a normal condition in Reno. Among the large transactions made was the conveyance from Mrs. Bessie Bovee to Frank P. Quinn of the east half of lot 8 and 9 in block X of Downin's addition to Reno. There has been considerable demand of late for these properties and Quinn will make that community his home. A four-room cottage is conveyed in the deed as well as the furniture and other personal property. The price stated in the deed is $1,500 but it is understood that the exact amount that changed hands in the trade was more than that sum. The lot is 47½x80 and is located 819 Riverside avenue.

Other Deeds:

S. B. Doten to H. A. Turner, lots 12 and 13 in block X of Downing's addition to Reno; consideration, $10.

Louis Britshgi to A. E. Luke and Isabell Jane Luke, lot 1, in block 1 of Wells addition; consideration, $10.

W. F. Brown and Thressa Brown to Fred Stephens, lots 18 and 19 in block Q, of the O'Sullivan tract in East Reno.

Silvester D. Loveland and wife to George M. Habel, lots 16 and 17, in block 1 of Evans' north addition to Reno, being the north west corner of Fourth and Peavine streets, 100x100. The consideration named is $5,000.

James Henry to Daniel Crawford, lots 24 in block 1 in the commercial addition to Reno; consideration, $10.

C. R. Hickok to Mrs. Julia Mingva Paull Hickok, lot 2 in block 8 of the new southside addition to Reno; consideration, $10.

Charles H. Burke to R. E. Sellman, lots 14 and 15 in block 6 of Wells' addition to Reno; consideration, $10.

Charles L. Rosengren to Frank P. Quinn, lot 10 in block X of the Powning addition to Reno.

DEMOCRATS HAVE MAJORITY OF ONE

Lander County Splits Her Votes and Elects One Candidate From Each Party Thus Giving Jeffersonian Principles Lead in Next Assembly.

Lander ounty has finally been heard from and makes the assembly safe for a democratic majority in the next session. One Democrat, William O'Brien, and one Republican, Simon Bray, were elected. As the Democratic-Silver party already had 19 assemblymen out of a total membership in that body of 39, the election of one more gives that party a majority of one and puts the party into an organizing position. There still remains White Pine, with two assemblymen to be elected, to be heard from definitely and there is a doubtful assembly fight in Lincoln county. But should the Republicans get all of these there will still remain to the Democrat-Silver party a majority in the assembly.

Mannix vs Douglass.

Nominee for Secretary of State Douglass, Republican, was in Reno yesterday and claims his election by a majority of from 300 to 500 votes. Frank P. Mannix, the Democratic-Silver party nominee is generally conceded to be defeated though he gave his popular rival a hard race and his defeat is evidence of the strength that Mannix can command should he enter another political fight. The nearer home the votes go the more he received, and his own community, Bullfrog, gave him an overwhelming majority. This, however, was overcome by the vote against him in the northern part of the state where he was little known.

The outcome of the state senatorial contest in Storey county is unsettled. The case came up for hearing today, but it will be several days before it is settled.

WILSON WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE AGAIN

W. J. Luke Will Come Out in Spring For Office of Leader of Municipal Affairs and Incumbent Will Retire When His Term as Mayor Ends.

That W. J. Luke, who was chosen a member of the assembly at the recent election, will be a candidate for mayor of Reno at the election next spring was announced at the meeting of the city council last night. Luke, it is said, has signified his purpose and the matter is being discussed freely about town.

When asked if he will enter the race against Luke, Mayor Wilson stated last night that he will not be a candidate. Business duties will prevent the incumbent from guilding the affairs of the city again.

He has engaged in partnership as a pharmacist, and when the drug store opens his time will be fully occupied.

Mayor Wilson succeeded the late Daniel O'Connor to the head of the municipal government. During his term of office, Mayor Wilson has shown marked ability in his position.

KUCHS HELD TO ANSWER FOR DEATH OF FERRELL

Charles Kuchs, accused of the murder of Ed Ferrel, was bound over to the grand jury after his preliminary hearing in the justice court yesterday. His bonds, amounting to $10,000, were still unfurnished and he is now watched in his apartments at the Riverside hotel by a deputy sheriff.

Witnesses at the trial yesterday asserted the circumstances of the shooting practically as confessed by the defendant the night the tragic event occurred. Frank Hatke, A. Noble and John R. Stoney were the chief witnesses.

Mrs. Charles Kuchs has taken possession of the flats on Second street which were occupied by the defendant before the killing. She will probably be a witness against her husband at the trial. She now asserts that she was not the cause of the alleged murder and that the allegations of her husband are untrue.

SCARCITY OF COAL HAMPERS THE N-C-O

Fuel Dust Burns Faster Than it Can be Shoveled in Firebox and Railroad Starts Another Oil Burner to Care for Traffic—Business Delayed

Scarcity of coal has affected the operation of the Nevada-California-Oregon railroad just at the time when the road is doing the largest business in its history. The fuel is unprocurable, it is alleged, because the Southern Pacific can not supply cars to the mines in Utah and Wyoming.

Sunday the third oil burner was started on the N. C. O. and an attempt will be made tokee p the traffic up until the road is able to get coal.

Coal has been supplied the N. C. O. by the Southern Pacific, but the product is said to be nothing but dust, requiring the services in some cases of an extra "passer" in order to keep the engine supplied. The coal dust is said to burn as fast as it is shoveled into the fire box.

Possibly the Southern Pacific may have to introduce oil burners on its run from Sparks to Winnemucca until coal can be procured. The oil is now being used on its line west of Sparks and its success and cleanliness has made it desirable.

Parliament Works Overtime.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—6:55 a. m.—The House of Commons has been sitting all night and is still in session at this hour. It is discussing the land tenure bill, which affects both England and Scotland, the object of which is to ameliorate the condition of the farmers. The opposition is bitterly contesting the moving of numerous amendments, which, after acrimonius debate, are being defeated by large majorities. The present is the most prolonged sitting of the new parliament.

Corporation Contemplates Many Improvements to Reno

AN important meeting was held yesterday by the Reno Development company and officers and a board of directors were elected. This was the first meeting of the company since the incorporation.

Following are the officers: Francis G. Newlands, president; P. L. Flanigan, vice president; S. M. Sample, secretary; George S. Nixon, F. G. Newlands, P. L. Flanigan, R. M. Price and T. B. Rickey, directors.

An omnibus charter permits the new company to engage in any and all varieties of enterprise which will be of advantage to Reno and aid in her advancement. While, till now, the company's attention has been taken up exclusively with securing options on property along south Virginia road, this is by no means the only purpose of the corporation. The charter contemplates the erection of a theater, the building and maintaining street car lines, and improving the city in other manifold ways that are deemed wise by the management.

The Reno Development company is a sign among many others that Reno and Nevada are waking up. The coming of capital into this city and state is becoming an every hour occurance almost, and Reno is feeling the impulse of new and greater activity.

Frank Golden's improvements to the hotel building he owns on Center street, is another evidence that capital is not frightened at large expenditures in this city. The Clay-Peters building and many other costly and modern structures are regarded as but the van guard of rows of imposing and expensive structures which are destined to face each other on the principal street of Reno.

GOES WITH STRING OF FAST, CLASSY HORSES

Barney Campbell, well known in this city has left for Oakland where he will stay until the racing season is over. He has a string of fifteen horses which he owns and which he will enter in the various events to be pulled off at the Emeryville track.

Campbell states that the present season in California bids fair to be the best that that state and particularly Emeryville, has ever witnessed.

"Three weeks ago," he said, "it was impossible to secure stalls for any more racing stock. Everything was filled full. Luckily I got mine there before all the accomodations were exhausted, but there are a lot of horsemen who have been disappointed.

"Besides this, there is bigger money being hung up this season for the ponies to run for than ever in the history of the Emeryville track.

"Johnny Driscoll and myself own the string I am going to watch and, of course, like everybody else, we think we have a ribbon of winners."

SECRETARY PRESENTS CLAIMS OF THE LEAGUE

An important meeting was held last night by the members of the Retail Merchants' association, when Secretary D. S. Taggart, of the Nevada Commercial League was present and presented the claims of the new organization urging the association to endorse its work collectively as a body and to support its purpose and aims, individually as members.

Though no definite action was taken by the merchants, it was the sentiment of the majority that the work of the league should receive their hearty approval and support.

Secretary Taggart presented a host of reasons why the members should "go to it" and work with the league, and his arguments were concise and convincing. He is already supplied with the data which show what can be done in Reno to speed the day when this city shall become indeed the Denver of Nevada, and a metropolitan center of a great state.

INTERESTING RECITAL BY MISS EDITH HOWE

This evening at the Congregational church Miss Edith Howe will present one of her entertaining and instructive recitals, for which she is noted only in Nevada but neighboring states as well. The title of her dramatic entertainment is stated picturesquely to be "The Sky Pilot," and is a topic full of entertaining possibilities.

Musical numbers by well known Reno musicians will be presented. Mrs. Pendergast will sing Florence Alyward's "Beloved, It is Morn;" and George S. Nickerson will sing Dudley Buck's "Creole Lover's Song."

SCHOOL BOARD TAKES PRECAUTION MEASURES

The school board, in order to take no chances on the entrance of infection into any of the schools of Reno has just completed a thorough cleansing process. Formaldehyde has been used freely in every room and it is believed that the work has been complete and effective. Dr. Morrison president of the board of health last night at the meeting of the council commended the action of the school board; said it was a good measure and that it met with the hearty approval of the board of health.

Dr. Morrison submitted the following facts in his regular health report to the city council:

There were nineteen deaths during October; of these thirteen were non-residents. This was out of a population estimated at 12,000, and produces an annual death rate per thousand, of six. Thirteen of the deceased were of the male sex, six were females. Tuberculosis was the most prolific cause, three of the deaths being due to this malady. Two died of pneumonia, and two of uremia; septicemia, nephritis, brain tumor inanition senility calvular heart disease one each.

REVOLTIONISTS ARE CHARGED WITH MURDER

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 12.—The cases of the alleged Mexican revolutionists, under arrest here upon complaint of the Mexican government, charging them with inciting a revolution, were taken up today on preliminary trial.

A surprise was sprung by the counsel for the Mexican government, when the charge of murder was made also. The count was notified that application for extradition had been made upon the murder charge. The accused are Antonio Villarreal, the alleged head of the St. Louis, Missouri, Junta, and Laero Aguierre, and Ramon Cano, supposed to be associates of Villareal. All were remanded by the commissioner without bail, pending the application by the government of Mexico for extradition.

SANTOS DUMONT MAKES SUCCESSGUL FLIGHT ON AEROPLANE

PARIS Nov 12—M. Santos-Dumont made another series of experiments with his perfected aeroplane in the Bois de Boulogne today At one time he skimmed along at a height of fifteen feet and at thirty miles an hour for 215 metres, when fear that his steering propellor would strike the cheering people forced him to descend The right wing of his machine was slightly damaged Some aeronauts present declared the aeroplane would soon fly for miles The next trial, will take place at Longchamps race course from which the crowd can be excluded

The principal change in the Aeroplane today was that the side rudder rims were attached to the shoulders of M Santos Dumont who operated them with movements of the body He was thus completely successful in preventing the rolling motion of the machine

WILL PLAY GOOD MUSIC FOR THE LOVE OF IT

Enthusiastic Musicians Organize and Will Give Symphony Concert at Grand this Week--Some of the Best Professional Talent is Interested

The derth of high class music in Reno has brought forth an enterprise which it is hoped by those backing it will in turn call forth the substantial encouragement of the people of this city who love good music but have a chance to hear it rarely

A symphony orchestra small in proportions but admirable in musicship has been organized and will give its first recital next Friday afternoon at the Grand theatre The members of the musical organization are enthusiastic musicians, and as there is little chance that money will be made from the concerts the Reno musical people are urged to attend and encourage a laudable effort to give good music for educational purposes as well as entertainment

If sufficient patronage is accorded the enterprise, other concerts will follow and the best obtainable local talent will be invited to take part in vocal as well as instrumental solo numbers

Mrs J J Pendergast whose rich contralto voice has been frequently heard in Reno recitals has consented to sing some selections Her first will be Masegani's 'Ave Maria' arranged from the famous Intermezzo' She will be accompanied by piano organ harp and violin This should be a rich treat as the instruments will be able to bring out the effects of the orchestra for which the piece was originally written

The rest of the programme has not as yet been made up but will be published later As evidence however of the excellence of the musical treat in store the following list of musicians who will compose the orchestra is appended

B R Smith and Salvatore De Sanctis violins Pasquale DeSanctis harp, L Sacks organ and piano William Ferguson cornet Maurice K Smith, euphonium D Crawford clarionette Charles Steves flute H Hopping contra bass and Maurice Eliasar piano

The affair is under the management of Al Cliff and the direction of DeSanctis and Smith

It should be a treat and the managers submit it to the indulgence of Reno music lovers who it is hoped will give sufficient encouragement to to this first effort looking toward better things musically to warrant a repetition of the effort and constant improvement in the character of the programme as well as the development of a better musical taste in Reno

UNCONSCIOUS MAN DRAGGED BY HORSES

Team Collides With Pile of Lumber at Night Because Warning Light is Not Placed—Driver Thrown to Ground and Arm is Broken

Thrown from his rig when it collided with a pile of lumber on Fourth street near the intersection of Peavine Thomas Burns a driver of a Chism milk wagon was knocked unconscious Sunday night by the fall and being wrapped in the reins the horses dragged him over the rough road breaking his arm and dislocating his shoulder

A passerby stopped the horses and a police officer removed the injured dairyman to a drug store where he was attended by a physician Burns was later taken to the Chism ranch west of Reno and he is now suffering from the accident

Burns was making his daily rounds with the milk wagon when the accident occurred He turned the corner of Peavine street to Fourth and because there was no light on the pile of lumber stacked high in the road by the builders of a house near there the horses ran into it Burns pitched forward to the ground and the lines became entangled with his body Frightened at the collision the horses started on a mad run up the street and it is probable that Burns would have been dragged to his death if the team had not been stopped

ASK LEAVE TO FILE TARIFFS WITH AGENTS

WASHINGTON Nov 12—About forty prominent railroad men representing the freight departments of their respective roads were present at the interstate commerce commission's offices today and conferred with Commissioner Clarke on the subject of posting the schedules of tariffs It is expected the conference will continue several days The chief subject of discussion today was the requirement that the schedules be posted conspicuously in every office of the railroads The freight departments asked for the privilege of merely filing the tariffs with the agents of railroads subject to the call of any person who desired to see them claiming the literal application of the law would cause an unnecessary outlay of money and labor Mr Clarke invited further discussion

DENY REPORTS OF THEATRICAL TRUST

NEW YORK Nov 12—The following statement was issued by Al Hayman, for Klaw and Erlanger today in reference to telegrams dated from Chicago and St Louis speaking of the formation of a fifty million dollar theatrical trust

'There is absolutely no truth in the statement, not even the slightest foundation for it The so-called theatrical syndicate is proceeding on the same lines that it has for the last eight or nine years booking the time of the theatres entrusted to it and not paying any attention to vaudeville combinations or anything else Somebody is using the press for his own ends in this particular matter and we desire to state in the most emphatic terms that there is no truth in this announcement.

ACTIVITY REIGNS IN BIG GOLDFIELD CAMP

Safe Blown Open and $1000 Stolen---Firebug Threatens the Town ---Stocks on Change are Eagerly Sought and Tremendous Demand Exceeds Supply

GOLDFIELD, Nov. 12.—The safe [illegible]e miners union was blown open this morning at an early hour and $1,000 in coin stolen. There is no clew, that will lead to the arrest of the guilty persons, in sight and the authorities are at loss to account for the methods employed by the ingenious robbers who got their booty and made their great-away without detection. Another peculiar thing that is engaging the attention among the police is the fact that last week there were three conflagrations each one of which threatened the town, and each one of which was started in the same locality. If there is a fire-bug in the camp, he is likely to be captured for there are various clews which are being followed by the authorities who hope soon to capture the incendiary.

Today was the maddest day on the stock exchange. Buyers crowded the sellers for the limit of their holdings, and still were unsatisfied. There seems to be no limit to the demand, and the supply is limited, of course by the stock issues of the various companies on the board. How long this situation will keep up is a matter of speculation, in the meantime, the reputation of the Goldfield mines as producers of something more tangible than not all and promises, and the big stream of yellow metal which is flowing from this district lend an air of proper confidence in the market and give the bulls on change reasonable excuse for their optimistic summing of the stock situation so far as Nevada mines are concerned.

There are 2,700 miners employed in the camp now and the production of gold is over a million dolars a month. This is one of the reasons why the situation is looked upon with optimism and why stocks from Goldfield have more buyers than sellers.

RENEGADE IS MAKING SPLENDID HEADWAY

A great body of ore has been encountered in the Renegade claim of the Olinghouse Nevada Mining and Milling company's property. The latest reports coming to the owners today state that the tunnel is thirty-five feet into the ore body, which latter is 200 feet deep and the foot wall has not yet been found. An upraiser is being made in the solid ore to connect with the workings above. When completed this will give the mine perfect ventilation to all its workings.

The body of ore encountered shows an average of $16 per ton in free gold. One hundred tons of ore have been piled up on the dump from development wor kalone. It is estimated that there are 20,000 tons of ore in sight.

The first intention of the company was to use the lower Springfield Nevada mill but the plan has been changed. It is now proposed to have what is known as the Ship mill at the mouth of the tunnel that penetrates the Renegade ore body.

Manager J. M. Thomas Jr., expects to have it in active operation within the next ten days. It will be run night and day, and will have a capacity of thirty tons a day. Manager Thomas states he can, he believes, extract the ore and mill it at a cost not to exceed $3 a ton.

COPPER KINGS ARE WATCHING NEW DISTRICT

Great Rush to Greenwater is on and a Town of a Thousand Inhabitants Grows from a Group of Tents—Machinery Hauled from Johnnie.

GOLDFIELD, Nov 12—To describe the rush of men and money into the new copper district at Greenwater would be to describe a stampede. Since the sudden realization of the tremendous strike on this bleak crest of the Funeral Range, given to the world less than a fortnight ago, the trails across Death Valley and the Amargosa Desert have day by day become almost congested. Automobiles stages, burros, mules, wagons, and men plodding afoot have defined the winding highways in thick clouds of dust. Capitalists of the mining world have lived on bread and water and slept on barren ledges ten miles to the east and west of Greenwater for the sake of missing nothing their money could buy. The plutocrats created by the dozen in Goldfield's great boom have grabbed their profits and raced to this latest copper bonanza to try and double their wealth. From every camp throughout Nevada Greenwater has drawn brains, brawn and gold.

The Greenwater of a month ago was a camp of a dozen tents. Today it is a thriving town. New buildings are going up as fast as lumber can be delivered. A census taken on October 20th would have totaled the population of Greenwater at seventy. Yesterday this total reached nearly 1,000. Not less than a hundred permanent residents pour in every twenty-four hours. The 500 experienced miners now on the ground went to work on the Clark or Schwab properties an hour after their arrival. The demand for labor far exceeds the present supply. Far down all the trails leading to the camp pickets are posted by the mine superintendents for a first call on the services of incoming workers.

To get water for this crowding population has been a difficult task. Water in Greenwater two months ago cost $5 a barrel. A month ago it cost $1.50 a barrel. But in another week all the water the camp can use will be pouring into huge tanks through pipes running from Ash Meadows. Machinery to the development of the mines is being hauled from Jhonnie in mule team caravans. Yesterday there were four carloads of such machinery sidetracked at Jhonnie, the nearest railroad station. The freighting of goods and passengers into Greenwater has reached so great a volume that the firms engaged in this business will immediately add 1,000 horsese and 150 wagons to their present outfit.

The reason for Greenwater's augmenting boom is not hard to find. All the experts investigating the big belt of copper deposits here centered agree on two facts, the surface showings in this district are claimed to surpass those made in any other copper territory; the extent of the deposits is greater than that of Butte or Bisbee, or a combination of all the rest of the copper districts in Montana and Arizona. The big investors in Greenwater claims are satisfied on those points. They are now seeking the values to be found at depth. And a token of what they are likely to find is furnished by Patsy Clark. He has sunk a shaft on his Furnace Creek Copper Company property 275 feet deep, with a crosscut at a depth of 250 feet. The result was the uncovering of an ore body 200 feet wide.

MINE CLOSED DOWN WHEN BIG STRIKE IS MADE

GOLDFIELD, November 12.—The Manhattan consolidated has closed down pending a meeting of the board of directors. The occasion of the closing down is a matter of great congratulation to the owners of the property because of the encountering of an immensely rich streak of rich rock in the hanging wall.

Work in the mine was progressing as usual and profitably, through fifteen feet of $35 ore, at the 200 foot level. While engaged in this work the rich find was made, but there is nothing given to the public concerning the value found. Immediately the mine was closed down and a meeting of the board of directors called. It is generally understood, however, that the strike is one of the richest, if not the richest thus far encountered in the Manhattan district.

MINA PROPERTIES SHIPPING GOOD PAY ORE

Blue Light, Great Updike and Other Companies on Substantial Paying Basis—Engineer Baker Recommends Construction of Roaster.

MINA, Nov 12—Engineer Baker of the Blue Light Mining Company has just completed and sent to the directors of his company in Indianapolis his report on the condition of the property of the Blue Light corporation at this place. The report is of considerable interest here as it displays a remarkably healthy and prosperous condition of the Blue Light mines which are undoubtedly permanent and rich.

There is enough ore in sight, blocked out, and plain to view to supply a roaster of 50-tons per day, capacity, with ore to keep it busy for two years. Engineer Baker states that a conservative estimate of the net profits such enterprises would entail shows $800,000 in two years. This opinion, submitted to the Indianapolis directors, by Engineer Baker is shared by other experts who have inspected the property. It is believed here that, in view of this showing the roaster will be established, in a short time.

The mines were purchased a short time ago by E. F. Adams for the Blue Light Mining company, and shortly after its purchase all the stock was taken off the market, and there is none for sale. Several offers have been rejected by the management which is determined to do its own development and secure for itself such profits as the mines will yield. Several Reno investors are interested in the corporation.

Claims are made that appear reasonable to those familiar with the situation, that the Blue Light will become one of the most valuable copper properties in the west. Thousands of tons of copper ore assaying from 5 to 6 per cent copper, are rejected and on the dumps as not valuable enough to ship. Only ore assaying in the neighborhood of 15 per cent copper, besides the gold and silver values, has been shipped. The ore contains about $2 per ton in gold and about 40 ounces of silver besides the copper.

Great Updike

The Great Updike Mining Company has property about two miles from the Blue Light in which Indianapolis capital is also interested. Active operations are now going on at these mines and possibilities are good for the future.

Indianapolis capital is also interested in the Sodaville-Tonopah, two miles from the Blue Light, which former property was also bonded and sold by E. F. Adams. Considerable ore has been shipped from the Sodaville-Tonopah property, and four hundred sacks are now piled up awaiting shipment at the depot at Mina.

Altogether the mining situation at Mina is most encouraging. The mines are in good pay ore, active work is developing active shipping and though little is said about the district, it is steadily forging ahead and making money for the capital interested there.

BULLS STILL ARE IN CONTROL OF MARKET

Quotations From Local Exchange Indicate That Tide of Advance in Nevada Mining Properties is in Full Swing. Mohawk Goes Up $10.

Lone Star jumped from 20 to 60 on Saturday. Yesterday it relapsed to 50 and closed strong at that figure with a sale of 2,000 shares. North Star went up a point on yesterday's dealings at the local stock and bond exchange. Mohawk still rising was quoted yesterday at 19.00 bid and no one who wanted to sell at that price. Saturday's figure was $17.50 bid with no sellers in sight. The disparagement between the asked and the bid prices on Saturday which were quoted on Montgomery Hills of 9 cents bid and fourteen asked produced an average yesterday of 12½c at which figure in closing 200 shares were sold. During the session the stock sold as high as 13¾. And so it went yesterday against good bullish prices prevailing. Following are the quotations:

BLACK CANYON WILL BE BIG PROFIT MAKER

With Ore Easily Worked and a Mill Site at the Tunnel Mouth if Desired There is Nothing in the Way of the Property Becoming Great Producer.

Frank V. Drake, attorney for the Black Canyon Mining company, visited the property last Sunday and brought back the report that the mine looked better than ever. The tunnel has been in from four to six feet milling ore all the way from its mouth, its present face is in a body of higher grade than any previously found, and of unknown extent. The miners had not at last accounts found either wall, while the body shows indications of making, the downward turn which was expected. The evidences are that a large body has been encountered.

Mr. Drake's experienced observation in such matters is fully borne out by President Kilpatrick of the company. Both agree that while the property has been good, the later work being done is rapidly making a mine that bids fair to become a credit and profit-maker for every one interested. Mr. Drake says further that all the values in the mine are free gold and can be saved by simple amalgamation.

With ore easily worked, a mill site at the tunnel mouth if wanted, and ample water with great fall within a mile and owned by the company conditions are so favorable that the existence of a profitable gold mine is assured.

Colonel Stovall, the company's secretary, has been indefatigable in urging the merits of the mineral region and Mr. Drake has also done much by correspondence with mining journals to call attention to it. The Colonel once took me to task for not proclaiming a mineral greatness, which as he now admits he could not point out any place where developments demanded attention. It must therefore be particularly gratifying to him and to the Black Canyon stockholders, as it certainly is to us, to know that the property they took up seems about to prove every forecast made for its richness.

Without professing to Encal knowledge of such matters, this paper expresses its conviction that so far as all indications show the Black Canyon

BLACK CANYON WILL FREE GOLD FOUND BY RENO MEN

Ramsey is Scene on the Norcross-Wheeler Property Which is Leased by Operators of This City of an Immensly Rich Strike

Jim Pritchard, Charles Kite, W. A. Dunaway, W. J. Westerfield and J. F. Haley, who have a lease on the Norcross-Wheeler property claims at Ramsey last Saturday uncovered an immense body of ore which shows free gold. This is a unique find, and it is conceded that they have struck the dyke, or if not the main dyke at least another one of great richness.

The men, interested in the property, are all Reno men, and are being congratulated by experts who have visited the find on their claim. Every shovel-full of ore taken out is panning colors.

The find was made not more than twenty feet from the surface, and shows evidence of getting better with depth. The strike has encouraged the operators to larger development work which will be more than paid for by the rich ore taken out.

The gold has not been encountered to any great extent heretofore in Ramsey and that is why the owners feel that they have struck the main dyke.

people have a mine that will be among the noted ones of this slope.

A mixed-up mass of ore from many points in the tunnel was carefully and fairly quartered down to a ton quantity a few days ago and gave an average better than $19. Inyo Register.

TRADE AND FINANCE IN THE WORLD'S MARKETS

Covering By Shorts Strengthens the Markets—Call Money is Stronger—London Market Will Be Helped by Relaxation in Rates Here.

LEAD ETAOIN ETAOINNUNUN

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The money situation had some effect on prices of stocks today. The determined abstention from operations in the market which was a feature of last week gave place to some liquidation. As the demand continued as torpid as last week the selling was affected only at concessions which were substantial.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Large selling orders appeared in the stock market when trading began under which prices declined sharply all around. Great Northern preferred fell 2, Canadian Pacific and Anaconda 1½, Union Brooklyn Transit, National Lead, St. Paul, Pacific 1¼, Pennsylvania, Reading, Atchison, Erie, B. O., New York Central, Missouri Pacific, Amalgamated Copper and Colorado Fuel large fractions. Mexican Central advanced a point. Kansas and Texas ⅝c.

Covering by shorts strengthened the market and some stocks recovered sharply but again dropped back to the opening level when the bears stopped buying. Tennessee Coal dropped six. Iowa Central 1½, Colorado and Southern, Amalgamated Copper and Distillers 1 to 1¼.

Before 11:30 money on call was quoted at 20 per cent. The rise to 20 per cent call loan rate brought out stocks freely. The result of the declines left few of the active stocks less than a point lower than Saturday's closing bid. Reading and Great Northern fell 3, Northern Pacific, Union Pacific and N. Y. Central, 2½, and others more. Tennessee dropped 7½ and Anaconda 4¼. The rebound was feeble when the selling pressure relaxed.

The compelling interference in the selling was the calling of loans necessitated by the deficit in the legal reserves of the banks shown by the Saturday bank statement. No source of replenishment of cash is available yet and a reduction of deposits by scaling down of outstanding credits is the alternative. Holders of securities thus called upon for repayment seemed reluctant to part with their holdings and their efforts to secure fresh accommodations ran the money rate up to 20 per cent early in the day. The local banks were said to be out of the money market entirely and funds were available only from the trust companies and out of town lenders. The large excess over the estimates of the loss of cash by the banks disclosed by the bank statement may be due to the withdrawal of cash by the trust companies. These institutions are under legal requirement to maintain 4 per cent of their deposits in actual cash in their vaults, as they have not been in previous years. It is believed that the bank loan contraction of over $35,000,000 of the last three weeks has been taken over largely by the trust companies. This would necessitate an increase of reserves in their cash in the proportion of four per cent instead of in the proportion of 25 per cent as in the case of the clearinghouse institutions. The stringency in the money situation was aggravated by the maturity of an installment of about half the subscriptions at par to $2,000,000 of St. Paul stock which therefore called for provision of about $2,000,000. Operators in stocks were somewhat disturbed by the explicit assertion of the secretary of the treasury that he would take no measure of relief for the money market in present conditions. The repetition of the announcement today was that, after confident assertions were in circulation in Wall street, that early steps would be taken to replenish the money market in spite of the disclaimers of the treasury authorities.

Opinion is not united in financial circles as to the feasibility of today's measures to give effective relief at the present time. It is recognized as out of the question to bring about easy conditions in Wall street except by carrying foreign markets a lower interest basis. Any marked relaxation in rates here will lead certainly to an outgo of gold to assist the struggling of the London money market to adjust itself to the heavy coming requirement of the year-end settlements. The stock market settlement began in London today and carry-over rates were again stiff, a rate of 9 per cent being reported at one time. The rates for sterling exchange had declined nevertheless under the influence of the stringent money market and free offerings of cotton bills.

The Money Market

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Prime mercantile paper, 6@6½ per cent. Sterling exchange steady at a decline, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85.70@4.85.75 for demand and at $4.80.25@4.80.30 for sixty day bills. Posted rates $4.81½@4.85½. Commercial bills $4.80. Bar silver, 71⅝c. Mexican dollars, 55c. Government bonds steady; railroad bonds easy.

Money on Call Strong

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Money on call 5@20 per cent, ruling rate 12 per cent; closing bid 8 per cent; offered at 8 per cent. Time loans very strong, 60 days, 8 per cent; 90 days, 7 to 7½ per cent; six months 6½ per cent.

Always Was Sick

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last a llwinter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by T. R. Cheatham, Reno and Sparks Drug Co., Sparks, Nev.
